

SAMUEL KOLTINSKY

Samuel Koltinsky
101 East Main Street
Princeton, Kentucky 42445 (270-625-6815)

“We Bring Extraordinary Stories to Life”
sam@marvoentertainmentgroup.com
<http://www.marvoentertainmentgroup.com>

Curriculum Vita

Major Works, Short Subject Presentation, and Educational Films

2012 - Owner, Marvo Entertainment Group LLC, Executive Producer and Composer in part for:

America’s Darling, a national documentary (in production)

My Kentucky Home series, documentaries, PBS (KET)

Remembering Rachel, a feature film in association with Meriwether Productions (in preproduction)

Music for My Friends. All original music CD (in production)

2011- Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

Let’s Paint the Town, Twin Cities, a national documentary on revitalization

Our Ultimate Commitment: Children, Educational submitted to 112th Congress, Award of Distinction:
International Academy of Visual Arts and Communicator Awards

2010- Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

My Kentucky Home: Grayson County Bicentennial documentary, PBS (KET), Award of Distinction:
International Academy of Visual Arts and Communicator Awards

My Kentucky Home: Lyon County documentary, PBS (KET)

Main Street, More Than Just a Place! documentary, PBS (KET), Award of Distinction: International
Academy of Visual Arts and Communicator Awards

Discover the Opportunities, promotional for Lake Barkley Partnership for Economic Development

2009: Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

HorseSmarts: Essential Advice for Today's Horse Owner, for the Kentucky Horse Council, PBS (KET), Award of Distinction: International Academy of Visual Arts and Communicator Awards
My Kentucky Home: Greenville documentary, PBS (KET)
My Kentucky Home: Crittenden County documentary, Kentucky Historical Society Merit Award
The Fall and Rise of Germany, re-released, Documentary Channel

2008- Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

My Kentucky Home: Crittenden County documentary, PBS (KET)
West Kentucky's Legacy Breeding Farm (Promotional)
Caldwell Medical Center (Educational/Promotional)
My Kentucky Home: Caldwell County Part II documentary, Kentucky Historical Society Merit Award

2007 - Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

J. N. Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge, Educational Center Film
My Kentucky Home: Madisonville, Kentucky documentary, Kentucky Historical Society Merit Award
My Kentucky Home: Caldwell County Part II documentary, PBS (KET)
A Voice and A Chance (Educational Fundraiser for a "No Kill Animal Shelter")

2006 - Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

My Kentucky Home: Madisonville, Kentucky documentary, PBS (KET)
Naples Botanical Garden "Butterflies" (Promotional)
Naples Botanical Garden-Hats in the Garden (Promotional)
The Night Riders Revisited (Educational/Promotional)
Ben E. Clement Mineral Museum (Promotional/Fundraiser)

2005-Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

My Kentucky Home: Caldwell County Part I documentary, PBS (KET), Kentucky Historical Society Merit Award
Adsmore: A Tapestry of the Past (Promotional)
Naples Botanical Garden-Hats in the Garden (Promotional)

2003-2004 - Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

Untold Stories, the History of Southwest Florida, (Eleven half-hour shows, PBS affiliate distribution)
Naples Botanical Garden-Hats in the Garden (Promotional)
Naples Botanical Garden-An Invitation to the Garden (Promotional)
Frank Oakes at the Center for Vital Living-Health and Nutrition (Educational)

2001-2002 - Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

Naples Botanical Garden-The Garden

1999-2000 - Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

The Fall and Rise of Germany two-hour documentary, PBS national distribution, international distribution in five languages, Recipient of 2000 RIAS BERLIN Commission's award for Excellence

Co-Producer for five thirty-minute television documentaries released abroad highlighting the cultural, scientific, political, military and economic themes of Germany from 1949 to 1999.

1998 - Executive Producer and Music Composer for:

Weimar, a Modern Day Renaissance City one-hour documentary, worldwide distribution

1993-1995 Consultant - Producer for:

A Good Revolution one-hour documentary, PBS national distribution and international distribution

1989-1993 - Owner and Consultant for Educational Trainers and Consultants, Munich, Germany and Naples, Florida

Incident to the fall of the Communist Wall, traveled and lived in the former East Germany. Developed and delivered international training programs for marketing, media, and public relations, intercultural dialogues, which were disseminated by local and state governments, corporations, and cultural institutions.

1985-1993 - Consultant

Lived in Germany and became proficient in the German language and dialects. Developed and delivered training programs for marketing, media, public relations, and language/intercultural development.

Community Service and Not-for-Profit Contributions 2006 – 2010

- “Let’s Paint the Town!” Presentation at 2010 National Main Streets Conference, Oklahoma City, OK
- 2009 Preservation Award for Local History, National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution
- “Let’s Paint the Town!” Presentation at 2009 National Main Streets Conference, Chicago, IL
- World Games 2010 Foundation, Inc., Education Committee Member
- Recipient, Ida Lee Willis Memorial Foundation Award 2008, “Let’s Paint the Town!”
- Recipient, National Trust for Preservation Grant, Washington, D.C.
- 2007 Citizen of the Year awarded by Princeton Elk’s Club
- History Channel, Save Our History, Top Ten U. S. Finalist, Kentucky Historical Society 2008 Community Award
- Caldwell County Historical Society Grant Chairperson, Save Our History Grant Award, History Channel 2006-2007
- Kentucky League of Cities Enterprise Award 2006, “Let’s Paint the Town!”
- Awarded Keys to the City of Princeton, Kentucky for “Let’s Paint the Town!” Project 2006
- “Let’s Paint the Town!” Creator, Organizer and Volunteer, statewide community campaign developed to bring our citizens together in a united effort to “enhance our community” by “rolling up our sleeves,” 2005 created

- Adviser to the Caldwell County School System, “Tracking Our Town through Time,” a K-12 Curriculum Program in development to accompany the “My Kentucky Home, Caldwell County” Documentary Series, as well as other Series Programs, Princeton, Kentucky
- Preservation Foundation for Caldwell County, developing a private foundation to assist merchants in downtown preservation for economic development, Princeton, Kentucky

Education

Master of Arts, Educational Psychology, University of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois; Bachelor of Arts, Psychology, University of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois

Undergraduate Studies in part at the University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky; Catholic University, Quito, Ecuador

Galapagos Islands, Ecuador.... one of the best experiences of my life!

Languages: Spanish and German